Corporate Responsibility

Silicon Valley Community Foundation partners with nearly 100 companies to help them achieve their local and global philanthropic objectives, engage employees and leverage their businesses for the common good.

At SVCF we are experts in helping companies build corporate citizenship programs that result in stronger brand reputation, increased employee engagement and retention, deeper stakeholder relationships and enhanced social impact.

Whether you participate in our events, partner with us on global grantmaking or take advantage of our matching gift services, by working with SVCF you will become part of a network of companies that are using innovative solutions to advance communities around the world.
